

Isaiah: Guardian of Bright Angel Point / Audible Script

(Total Scenes: 30)

Scene 1

Early morning sunlight warms the Grand Canyon as Isaiah, a majestic bald eagle, glides high above the vast red rock canyon walls.

Scene 2

Isaiah circles Bright Angel Point with his keen eyesight, watching over the canyon trails and keeping a lookout for any hidden danger below.

Scene 3

Far below along the canyon floor, Diablo, a mean pink rattlesnake, slithers through the desert dust searching for his next meal.

Scene 4

Down at Phantom Ranch, six-year-old Cora and her cute brown-and-white hamster, Sienna, awaken inside their wooden campsite cabin.

Scene 5

After breakfast, Cora and her parents put on their backpacks while a River Ranger warns them that heavy flash flooding is expected today.

Scene 6

Back inside the cabin, Sienna happily zips across the floor on a tiny toy scooter.

Scene 7

Sienna's scooter rolls over a loose board, revealing a small hole in the wooden cabin floor leading directly outside.

Scene 8

Sienna crawls out into the grass and meets Mirra the ladybug. Sienna introduces herself, and Mirra replies, "Welcome to Phantom Ranch! Watch out for Diablo, he's very mean!"

Scene 9

Mirra flutters away as Sienna looks up into the sky and sees Isaiah soaring above. Sienna waves her little paw, and Isaiah gives a friendly nod.

Scene 10

An instant bond is formed between them. High above, Isaiah decides he will keep a protective eye on the tiny hamster.

Scene 11

Dark clouds roll in and thunder rumbles. Exploring the grounds, Sienna meets an energetic gray squirrel named Gabriel, and they splash joyfully in the mud.

Scene 12

Seeing the storm build, Isaiah flies off toward the horizon to check the weather, leaving Sienna in Gabriel's care.

Scene 13

Darkness falls as torrential rain crashes down and the Colorado River roars violently, rising above its banks.

Scene 14

A River Ranger shouts, "Flash flood incoming! Get to the rescue helicopters!" Cora runs back to the cabin, realizing Sienna is missing.

Scene 15

As lightning flashes across the sky, Cora kneels down and prays tearfully, "Please Lord, keep her safe. In Jesus' name, Amen."

Scene 16

Through the dark storm, Ella, a glowing firefly, appears in the gloom to guide Sienna and Gabriel safely up into a high treehouse shelter.

Scene 17

Unbeknownst to them, Diablo the pink rattlesnake silently slithers up the wet tree trunk behind them.

Scene 18

The next morning, Diablo corners Sienna at the very tip of a thin branch with nowhere left to run.

Scene 19

Gabriel spots a wicker basket floating fast down the river rapids and shouts, "Sienna, jump in now!"

Scene 20

Sienna leaps bravely into the wicker basket, but Diablo dives into the rushing water, swimming close behind as they speed toward a massive waterfall.

Scene 21

Back at the flooded campsite, Cora bows her head again in faith: "Lord, I believe you'll find a way to bring Sienna back. Amen."

Scene 22

Isaiah bursts through the clouds like a lightning bolt, diving at full speed toward the rushing river.

Scene 23

Isaiah swoops down and grabs the basket's handle with his mighty talons just seconds before Diablo reaches it.

Scene 24

Unable to stop, Diablo plummets over the crashing waterfall onto the rocks below, screaming "Oh-noooooo!"

Scene 25

Isaiah carries Sienna high above the canyon in the wicker basket as park rangers and visitors cheer from below.

Scene 26

Mirra the ladybug flies beside Cora's family camper to direct her attention. Cora looks out the window and shouts, "Daddy, stop the camper!"

Scene 27

Isaiah gently sets the basket down. Sienna leaps straight into Cora's loving arms as Cora exclaims, "Thank you Lord for answering my prayers!"

Scene 28

Cora holds Sienna close, smiling warmly as Isaiah soars victoriously back up into the bright canyon sky. Cora says softly, "Let's get you home, little one."

Scene 29

A beautiful sunrise over Bright Angel Point with text overlay of Bible verse— Isaiah 40:31. "Angels really do come in all shapes and sizes!"

Scene 30

Closing credits screen over a soft Grand Canyon landscape of Bright Angel Point.
